thus will have a safe majority in the lower house. It is expected that by the end of the present week the 264 credentials, embracing the entire membership of the Chamber, will have been issued. Preparations are being made for the formal opening of Congress September I when President Obregon is expected to deliver his message in person. Various members of the Cabinet recently have spent some time with President Obregon, who is on vacation at Ocotlan, and the Presidential message is said to be completed. On the programme she was Vera d'Artelle and her charm had so appealed to Koemmenich who, before the war, had gained much favorable notice as a composer and director, that he had made somewhat of a protegee of her and pledged himself to coach her in music. It appears the association had grown into something more than friendship.

Koemmenich's wife said she asked the girl to discontinue her friendship with him and Koemmenich's daughter, Irms, spoke to Vera about it. The latter declared her willingness, but added that Koemmenich spoke of suicide whenever she suggested severing her associations with him.

It was August that Irma Koemmenich isked Vera Lehmann to forget the for-ner's father. Two days later Vera was bound unconcious. She died last Mon-

The police said there-was no apparent idence that Vera Lehmann's passion or Louis Koemmenich was so great to impell her to suicide. Koemenich obviously was fonder of her than the of him.

Waiter Lehmann, a brother of Vera Lehmann, said last night that he did not believe that his sister killed herself because of any infatuation for Dr. Kommenich. He said that so far as members of the Lehmann family knew the girl was fond of the composer only in the way that young women are always fond of their teachers.

of their teachers.
Dr. Thomas A. Gonzales, Assistant Medical Examiner, was called to Koemmenich's apartment last Monday after the superintendent of the building had discovered the unconscious muscian. He handed a suicide certificate to Mrs. Koemmenich, who frad been living with friends at Great Neck. Mrs. Koemmenich had hurried to Manhattan when notified her husband was dying.

Mexico City, Aug. 20 .- One hundred Women's Tongued Pumps Are been issued by the Electoral Commission in Better Demand-Silk of the Chamber of Deputies, a great majority of which will go to members of Men Prepare for 1923.

AND TRADE NEWS

Women's shoe manufacturers are doing a satisfactory business, in some instances better than was expected. Their representatives are on the road with the fall sample these and are booking a small but steady volume of business. Most retailers are carrying light stocks and are beginning to replenish their researces in a more liberal fashion. The merchants, as a general rule, are not anticipating their requirements beyond sixty days. This buying method has led manufacturers to believe that many orders cailling for immediate delivery will be received as soon as the consumer demand for fall merchandise increases. A prominent uptown retailer reported a steady increase in sales of tongued pumps and a slump in the demand for strapped pumps. Novelty shoes are said to be enjoying a steady demand. representatives are on the road with the and the Presidential message is said to be completed.

Adolfo de la Huerta, Minister of the Treasury, will meet the leaders in the Chamber this week and discuss with them the agreement made with the international bankers, with a view to speedily taking up the agreement for ratification.

President Obregon will return to Mexico city Thursday. It is said he is much improved in ifealth.

National Silk Week.

The first meeting of the National Silk Week Committee, of which John B. Taylor is chairman, was held last Friday in the rooms of the Silk Association. A number of sub-committees were appointed to formulate definite plans for the Second National Silk Week, to follow the second International Silk Exposition of 1923. A definite plan will be announced within the next two weeks.

Georges's Friends Piqued GAUGHAN IS FIRST as Gaudin Is Honored

PARIS. Aug. 20.—Friends of Georges Carpentier, who was defeated by Champion Jack Dempsey, were incensed to-day at the action of the Government in making Lucien Gaudin, fencer, who beat the Italian champion, a member of the Legion of Honor.

Friends of Georges point to the fact that their idol was never made a member of the legion.

It was tacitly understood at the time that Georges would have been made a member if he had succeeded in wresting the heavyweight championship of the world away from Dempsey at Jersey City.

IN TWO MILE RACE

Morningside A. C. Athlete Takes the Feature Event at Shamrock Club Meet.

John Gaughan of the Morningside
A. C. captured the feature race at two miles at the annual games of the Shamrock Club at Celtic Park yesterday afternoon. Starting from the fifteen yard post, one of the back mark men, the Morningside athlete rated the pace nicely and overhauled the field in the final 200 yards, and set a fast pace to win by 25 yards.

E. Carlsen of the Swedish-American
A. C., who was given an allowance of 125 yards, finished second, well ahead of J. Sullivan of the Paulist Athletic Club, who had a handleap of 20 yards.
The time, 10 minutes 16 2-5 seconds, is considered good in the face of clouds of dust which the contestants were compelled to face.

A. J. MacAdam, an unattached athlete, marched off with two prizes. Competing in a 100 yard dash for novices he romped away with first place, two yards in advance of E. D. Gibson of the Bloomfield Catholic Lyceum, with G. Gilck of the Fartime A. C. a step behind, in 11 seconds flat.

Herbert Hoaglander of the Century Road Club of America was the victor in the bicycle pursuit race. The judges called a halt after the riders had covered twelve miles.

SPENCER TOO FAST FOR 'IRISH GIANT

Bike Champion Defeats Frank Cavanagh Two Heats in Three at Newark.

Willie Spencer, American bike cham-Cavanagh, the "Irish Giant," in a one mile match race at the Velodrome in Newark yesterday afternoon. Cavanagh has been cleaning up on the New England tracks and was brought to Newark to see what he could do against the champion. Although handleapped by a fall which he received in Providence Friday night and covered with numerous bandages Cavanagh beat Spencer in the first heat, only to lose the next two. Cavanagh put up a good ride in every heat and many of the fans were of the opinion that he would have beaten Spencer if it had not been for his many bruises.

Weight is 108 pounds.

Beat George Mendes.

Villa had attained top form and was ready for all comers when there agreed in the islands an Australiah boxer of note named George Mendes, who was on the way to England to how a match with Jimmy Wilde. Mendes decided that he needed a bout to condition himself for the Wilde contest, and he made a match with Villa. The Filipine had no appreciation of the importance of the Wilde-Mendes match and proceeded to knock out the Australian in four rounds. Mendes canceled the bout with Wilde and returned to Australia. Cavanagh, the "Irish Giant," in a one | weight is 108 pounds.
